Trudy Hanson Fouser is regionally and nationally recognized as an exceptional trial lawyer. She defends health care facilities, businesses and professionals in medical malpractice, employment law, and personal injury defense cases. Chambers USA interviewees laud Trudy as an “excellent litigator” and praise her “ability to effectively manage litigation and achieve a successful outcome . . . along with a gifted ability to persuade and present her point of view.” Benchmark Litigation interviewees hail Trudy as “the leading female litigator in Idaho,” and say that “Trudy’s 20 years of experience in defense litigation makes her the top choice for very difficult and technical matters’ particularly in catastrophic injury claims.” She was named “Personal Injury Litigation - Defendants ‘Lawyer of the Year’ in Boise” in 2015 and 2019 by Best Lawyers.

Trudy has been lead counsel in more than 60 civil jury trials over the course of her career, and her superior trial skills have resulted in her being inducted into two prominent trial organizations. She is a Fellow of the American College of Trial Lawyers (ACTL) and an Associate in the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA). She is the only female lawyer in Idaho who is a member of ABOTA.
