- Our team tries cases throughout the State of Idaho and we are familiar with judges, opposing counsel and juries throughout the State.
- We are often retained by clients to serve as trial counsel shortly before a trial commences because of our reputation that, if requested by our clients, we will without hesitation go to trial. Our agility and the trial experience of our attorneys and staff enable us to efficiently and effectively get up to speed.

Chambers USA interviewees say "They [Gjording Fouser] are particularly sought after for [their] experience handling jury trials."

Another client interviewee stated, "This team of attorneys is truly second to none."
- U.S. News-Best Lawyers ranked our firm in the highest category possible, tier 1, in the Idaho appellate category and the personal injury litigation – defendants category. For the seventh year in a row, we are the only law firm to receive a tier 1 ranking in the Idaho appellate category.

TEAM-BASED LITIGATION APPROACH

Gjording Fouser has a team-based litigation approach for our clients. While at most law firms this simply means placing several attorneys on a case and double or triple billing for the same hour, at Gjording Fouser the team approach means that we assemble client teams that consist of our attorneys that have the best skill set to handle our clients' needs. This approach ensures that each client will have the best person analyzing records, performing discovery tasks, researching and retaining experts, drafting motions, planning issue-based focus groups, and taking witnesses at trial. Our client teams hold bi-weekly internal roundtable discussions, at no charge to the client, where we develop a fresh and innovative strategy for each case and we believe these meetings ensure consistent, high quality and cost-effective service is provided to each and every one of our clients.

We embrace the basic principle that more can be accomplished through teamwork than by a collection of individuals.
